

FOSSETT MINISTRIES

317 Lakeview Drive • Dalton, GA 30721

Greetings in the strong and mighty name of Jesus! I pray that you are experiencing the great blessings and joy of the Lord along with your family and the ministry to which God has called you. I know you join me in a sincere desire to see Heaven-sent revival sweep our land. I am so concerned with the lack of urgency and expectancy most churches and church members exhibit toward God. We suffer from the “been there, done that” syndrome. We need revival! Not a series of meetings on the calendar, but true revival. You know as well as I do, according to the scripture, Ephesians 4:11, evangelists are a gift to the church. The God-called office of the evangelist is biblical and necessary. We are appropriately named together in God’s Word. The urgency of the hour dictates we remain together as a team, working together. However, evangelists do not pull revival out of their back pockets. Billy Graham says forty-five percent of the effectiveness of a revival is preparation, ten percent is proclamation or presentation, and forty-five percent is preservation. The church must prepare (45%)... (a) pray, (b) bring the lost, (c) promote. The church must follow-up (45%)... (a) baptize those that are saved, (b) connect them to a small group like Sunday School, (c) visit, witness to, and win their lost family and friends as soon as possible. We need to “Iron while the iron is hot.” I want to encourage you to plan two revivals a year, involve your people, do the preparation, expect people to be saved, and follow-up. Use a God-called Evangelist. Dr. Roy Fish said it like this... “Revivals work when people do.” Work your revivals. The fruit will be souls saved, a church revived, and a pastor encouraged.

Cheerfully Serving Jesus!

FOSSETT MINISTRIES

"One of the joys of my ministry is mentoring young preachers. One such preacher is Brian Fossett. He has the undeniable call of God to preach and does it with great excitement and expectation. Expose your people to him. You will be blessed, I assure you."

"Nothing excites me any more than to find a young preacher that I can trust to write a word of approval. One of these is Brian Fossett whom God has called to the office of evangelist. It is a joy for me to be a part of this man's life and ministry. His zeal, love for souls and desire for revival makes him among the many yet a part of the few, whom God has set aside to bless pastors and churches. Every pastor would be blessed to have him in his church."
